Alila Ubud Bali, Indonesia

Alila Ubud in the traditional Balinese Hill Village of Payagan and on the banks of the mystical Ayung River is just five kilometers from Bali's artistic centre of Ubud. The place where artists, painters, writers and musicians from around the world have long inspiration. The hills and valleys surrounding Alila Ubud contain a number of traditional villages and family compounds as well as some of the most spectacular scenery in Bali. Various tours are available from Alila Ubud featuring treks through the stunning local countryside away from the tourist crowds. Not to be missed tours include a trip to the island's central volcanoes, the village of Kintamani and the beautiful scenery of Lake Batur; a cultural; tour of Ubud and a visit to Gianyar the home of ikat weaving and the Goa Gajah Elephant Cave. The resort's 56 rooms and villas are housed in 14 two-storey blocks designed to resemble a Balinese village.

All rooms and villas have panoramic views of the magical Ayung River and surrounding volcanoes.

The Deluxe Rooms on the ground floor feature individual garden terraces and a back courtyard with an open-air bathroom and shower.

The Superior Rooms on the upper floor feature a private balcony and a daybed where you can chill out, read a book or just daydream.

While enjoying the unobstructed views. There are also eight villas. Four superb Valley Villas offer a spacious walk-around deck and are perched over the valley affording spectacular views of the Ayung River. The four luxuriously spacious Pool Villas offer a complete retreat experience with a private pool bordered by landscaped gardens, an open-air bathtub surrounded by a lotus pond, LCD TV and entertainment system, and the exclusive privilege of personalized leisure concierge services and in-villa dining and spa treatments
